

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an obviously politically-biased advertisement ("Stolen Honor") cloaked as a 'documentary', days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I request that you take action to stop them from forcing their affiliates to show "Stolen Honor" or, at the very least, give equal access for other political programming.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to develop and enforce rules for appropriate use of public airwaves and limit the amount of media one corporation can own. A free and diverse media is an essential part of our democracy. Thank you.
